

Have you lost your job due to recent events?

We can help!

The Dislocated Worker program can help people who have lost their job through no fault of their own return to work. For more information on Dislocated Worker services please contact one of the Service Providers listed on the back of this flyer.

Eligible people may qualify for the following services to help them prepare for and find work that is in-demand now;

- Individual career planning and counseling
- Connection with employers who are hiring now
- Connection to education resources including English as a Second Language (ESL) instruction and Adult Basic Education
- Financial assistance for counselor-approved education and training for in-demand careers
- Training to develop new skills in a new field
- Assistance with workplace effectiveness skills
- Assistance with expenses such as transportation or family care to help you achieve employment or training goals
