

A background image of a diverse group of young people smiling and looking towards the camera. A white outline of the state of Minnesota is overlaid on the left side of the image.

CareerForce can help you explore your career options

What are you interested in? What are you good at? What do you want to do?

CareerForce can help you decide what might be a good future career fit for you. Plus, we can help you learn about occupations that will be in demand, what education and training you need to reach your career goals and what you may earn when you're hired.

- Customized career planning based on your interests and skills
- Up-to-date occupation demand, educational requirement and wage information
- Resume writing help
- Interview preparation
- Career planning workshops
- Education and training for eligible career seekers
- Job search strategy development and assistance
- Register for job search workshops
- Search thousands of open jobs by type, location and more

CareerForce services are available:

- To all Minnesotans
- Online and in person
- At NO COST to you

Snap the QR code to find contact information for a CareerForce location near you